

ECC Summer Theater Series To Open with 'Caine Mutiny'

Opening the summer theater series produced by El Camino College, "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial" will play in the Campus Theater Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

Directing Herman Wouk's penetrating story of military justice is Paul Comi, an El Camino College alumnus now engaged in professional work on screen and television.

Comi starred in a number of El Camino productions before accepting a scholarship to the University of Southern California and engaging in the professional theater.

Comi, working with Instructor Howard M. Banks, directs a cast of 18.

PLAY SETTING
Setting for the play is the general court-martial room of the Twelfth Naval District in San Francisco. The second act shifts the scene to a banquet room in San Francisco's Hotel Fairmont. Action occurs in February, 1945.

Playing the role of Captain Queeg in the all-male cast is Robert Conner, whose interest in the theater originated while he was an undergraduate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Since that time he has participated in local community theater work in Torrance and Redondo Beach. He won a directing award at Morgan Theater in Santa Monica.

SECOND APPEARANCE
Dean Bishop will make his second appearance on the El Camino stage in the role of a jurist. He played in the spring production of the "King and I."

Jim Brewer, who has studied at Baylor University in Waco, Tex., the International Summer School in Salzburg, Austria; the University of Tennessee and the University of Southern California, adds El Camino College to his formidable list of alma maters as he portrays Captain Blakely. He has appeared in opera and in numerous dramatic performances.

ECC DEBUT
Debuting on the El Camino stage, Hal Bokar will enact the role of Lt. Stephen Maryk. William Gillette, also making his stage debut at El Camino, will play Captain Randolph Southard; while Max L. Huber, winner of the National Speaking Championship in 1955, takes the part of Lt. Barney Greenwald.

Following ECC performances in "The Taming of the Shrew," "Cinderella," and "The Boor," Clinton Jones returns to the local stage as Lt. Comdr. John Challe.

In his second semester at El Camino, Michael Kendall plays Signalman Third Class Junius Urban. A graduate of South High School, he also appeared in "The Taming of the Shrew."

SUPPORTING ROLES
James Lindley will play the part of the stenographer, while Robert O'Daniel, acclaimed in both the United States and Europe as a qualified portrait artist specializing in charcoal drawings, pen and ink renderings, and pencil drawings, plays Dr. Bird.

Cliff Potts, well known on the college stage for his roles in "Mr. Roberts," "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," and "South Pacific," returns to play Lt. (jg) Willis Seward Keith.

Another alum to the EC stage is Ron Quint, who will play Dr. Forrest Lundeen.

THEATER EXPERIENCE
Thom Rhodes, in the part of Lt. Thomas Keefer, attended Carnegie Tech in Pennsylvania and has extensive theatrical experience.

Club Rise Called '25-Man' Effort

The sudden emergence of the Los Angeles Angels into contenders in the hectic American League race cannot be credited to any one man. So says manager Bill Rigney.

"It's not a case of one player carrying our club," Rigney points out. "Every man on this ball club has had a part to play—a very important part—in our rise in the American League race," Rigney says.

State College Advances Application Deadline

Los Angeles State College has advanced its deadline for accepting applications for admission for new graduate and undergraduate students to August 1, it was announced today by Dr. John Niederhauser, Dean of Admissions. The date in previous years has been August 15.

"In order to guarantee action on applications for admission in time for registration for the fall semester," Dr. Niederhauser advised "students entering Los Angeles State College as freshmen from high school or as transfer students from other colleges must have their applications and appropriate transcripts of previous high school or college work on file by the August 1 deadline."

Advisement and registration week at the college will be held September 17-20, with instruction beginning on September 24.

The earlier admissions deadline for new students had to be set, Dr. Niederhauser explained, because of the continued increase in enrollments. Up to this date the college has received applications from more than 6,000 prospective new students, including approximately 2,000 potential freshmen. Expected enrollment for the college this fall is between 17,000 and 17,500.

Application forms for admission may be requested from the Office of Admissions at the college in writing or by telephone (CA 5-1631, ext. 361).

And down he knelt in manner to receive. —Chaucer from Canterbury Tales

STEEL PIPE
CARE "packages" sometimes take the form of steel pipe for community self help, pure water projects or equipment for fishing boats. These are all in CARE's program to help needy people help themselves.

PERSON TO PERSON
CARE's program is a person activity in which the sender's name accompanies his package. Recipients know all CARE packages are gifts from the American people.
